

United Boys & Girls Clubs of Santa Barbara Simply Elegant Masquerade

By JEANETTE CASILLAS/CASA

A MASQUERADE both elegant and lively, was the setting for the United Boys and Girls Club “Kid’s Auction,” at the Bacara Resort and Spa. Jeff Henley, a local children’s advocate and long-time supporter was honored. “Jeff is very involved and represents the UBGC at a local and national level,” shared Catherine McFarland, Auction Chair. “He personifies what the UBGC is doing and is always willing to help and do whatever is asked of him.”

Henley’s relationship with the clubs began as a teenager when his family moved to La Habra. Since then Henley has furthered the mission of Boys &

Girls Clubs and his commitment to sustain its future via serving as Co-Chair of the United Boys & Girls Clubs’ Endowment Campaign. Henley, along with his wife Judy, support the Club’s youth development programs.

UBGC President, Craig Case served as Master of Ceremonies; Officer Kent “Wojo” Wojciechowski and Sal Rodriguez led the Live Auction. Entertainment was provided by Soul City Survivors and Lompoc Boys & Girls Club girls performed a choreographed routine with the help of Daniel Rojo of Everybody Dance Now.

“The performance was one of the favorites of the evening,” shared McFarland. “The girls let loose and seemed to be having a really good time.” The annual Kids Auction is one of the Santa
