Students serving overseas this summer

Westmont Students are participating in a variety of important overseas service projects this summer. Fourteen Westmont students will be spending at least a month this summer serving communities around the globe as part of Emmaus Road, a Westmont program that has been sending students overseas for 12 years. The 19 members of the women's soccer team were in Uganda, working with the Sports Outreach Institute (SOI) at rehabilitation institutes for young children, running soccer clinics, and working at a farm in Gulu. A group of 19 students and a couple of faculty members participated in "Faith, Justice and Globalization: Human Trafficking," that takes the group to Thailand and Cambodia. Pattaya, Thailand, is home to at least 20,000 male, female, and child prostitutes.

Grant for The Jewish Federation

The Jewish Federation of Greater Santa Barbara has received a $74,250 grant from the Archstone Foundation to assist with start-up costs for Santa Barbara Village, a program of coordinated services for area seniors and their families. Santa Barbara Village will enable a growing and diverse group of area residents to remain living in their homes and communities as they age. The Archstone grant will allow a professional coordinator to be hired who will enlist membership, evaluate potential providers, and coordinate the services needed to launch the program.

Please send CASA your good news about promotions, changes, new family members, anniversaries, and all important occasions. We'll do our best to spread the word. Email information and pictures to People@CasaSB.com

Santa Barbara Foundation Senior Vice President of Community Investments Martha Harmon and Women's Fund of Northern Santa Barbara County Co-chair Judy Markline.

Women's Fund of North County Awards $120,000 in Grants

The Women's Fund of Northern Santa Barbara County awarded $120,000 to four community organizations serving the critical needs of women, children, and families at its annual presentation reception On June 30th. From humble beginnings as a giving circle of 16 local women, the Women's Fund of Northern Santa Barbara County has grown to over 200 members, awarding a total of $320,000 to 14 nonprofits in North County in just three years. "We are so pleased to be able to award grants to these amazing organizations doing important work serving the critical needs of women, children, and families in the North County communities," said Judy Markline, Co-chair of the Women's Fund. The Women's Fund also received a generous grant of $20,000 from The Orfalea Foundations as well as a $50,000 award from The Roy and Ida Eagle Foundation.
